

Stop protecting the huge telecommunication conglomerates. XM provides a service that the American people want. Don't interfere with their right to innovate and provide a needed service.

XM is the kind of healthy competition that the US needs. Tell the complainers to stick with free AM and FM and let the rest of us enjoy the choice provided by the likes of XM.